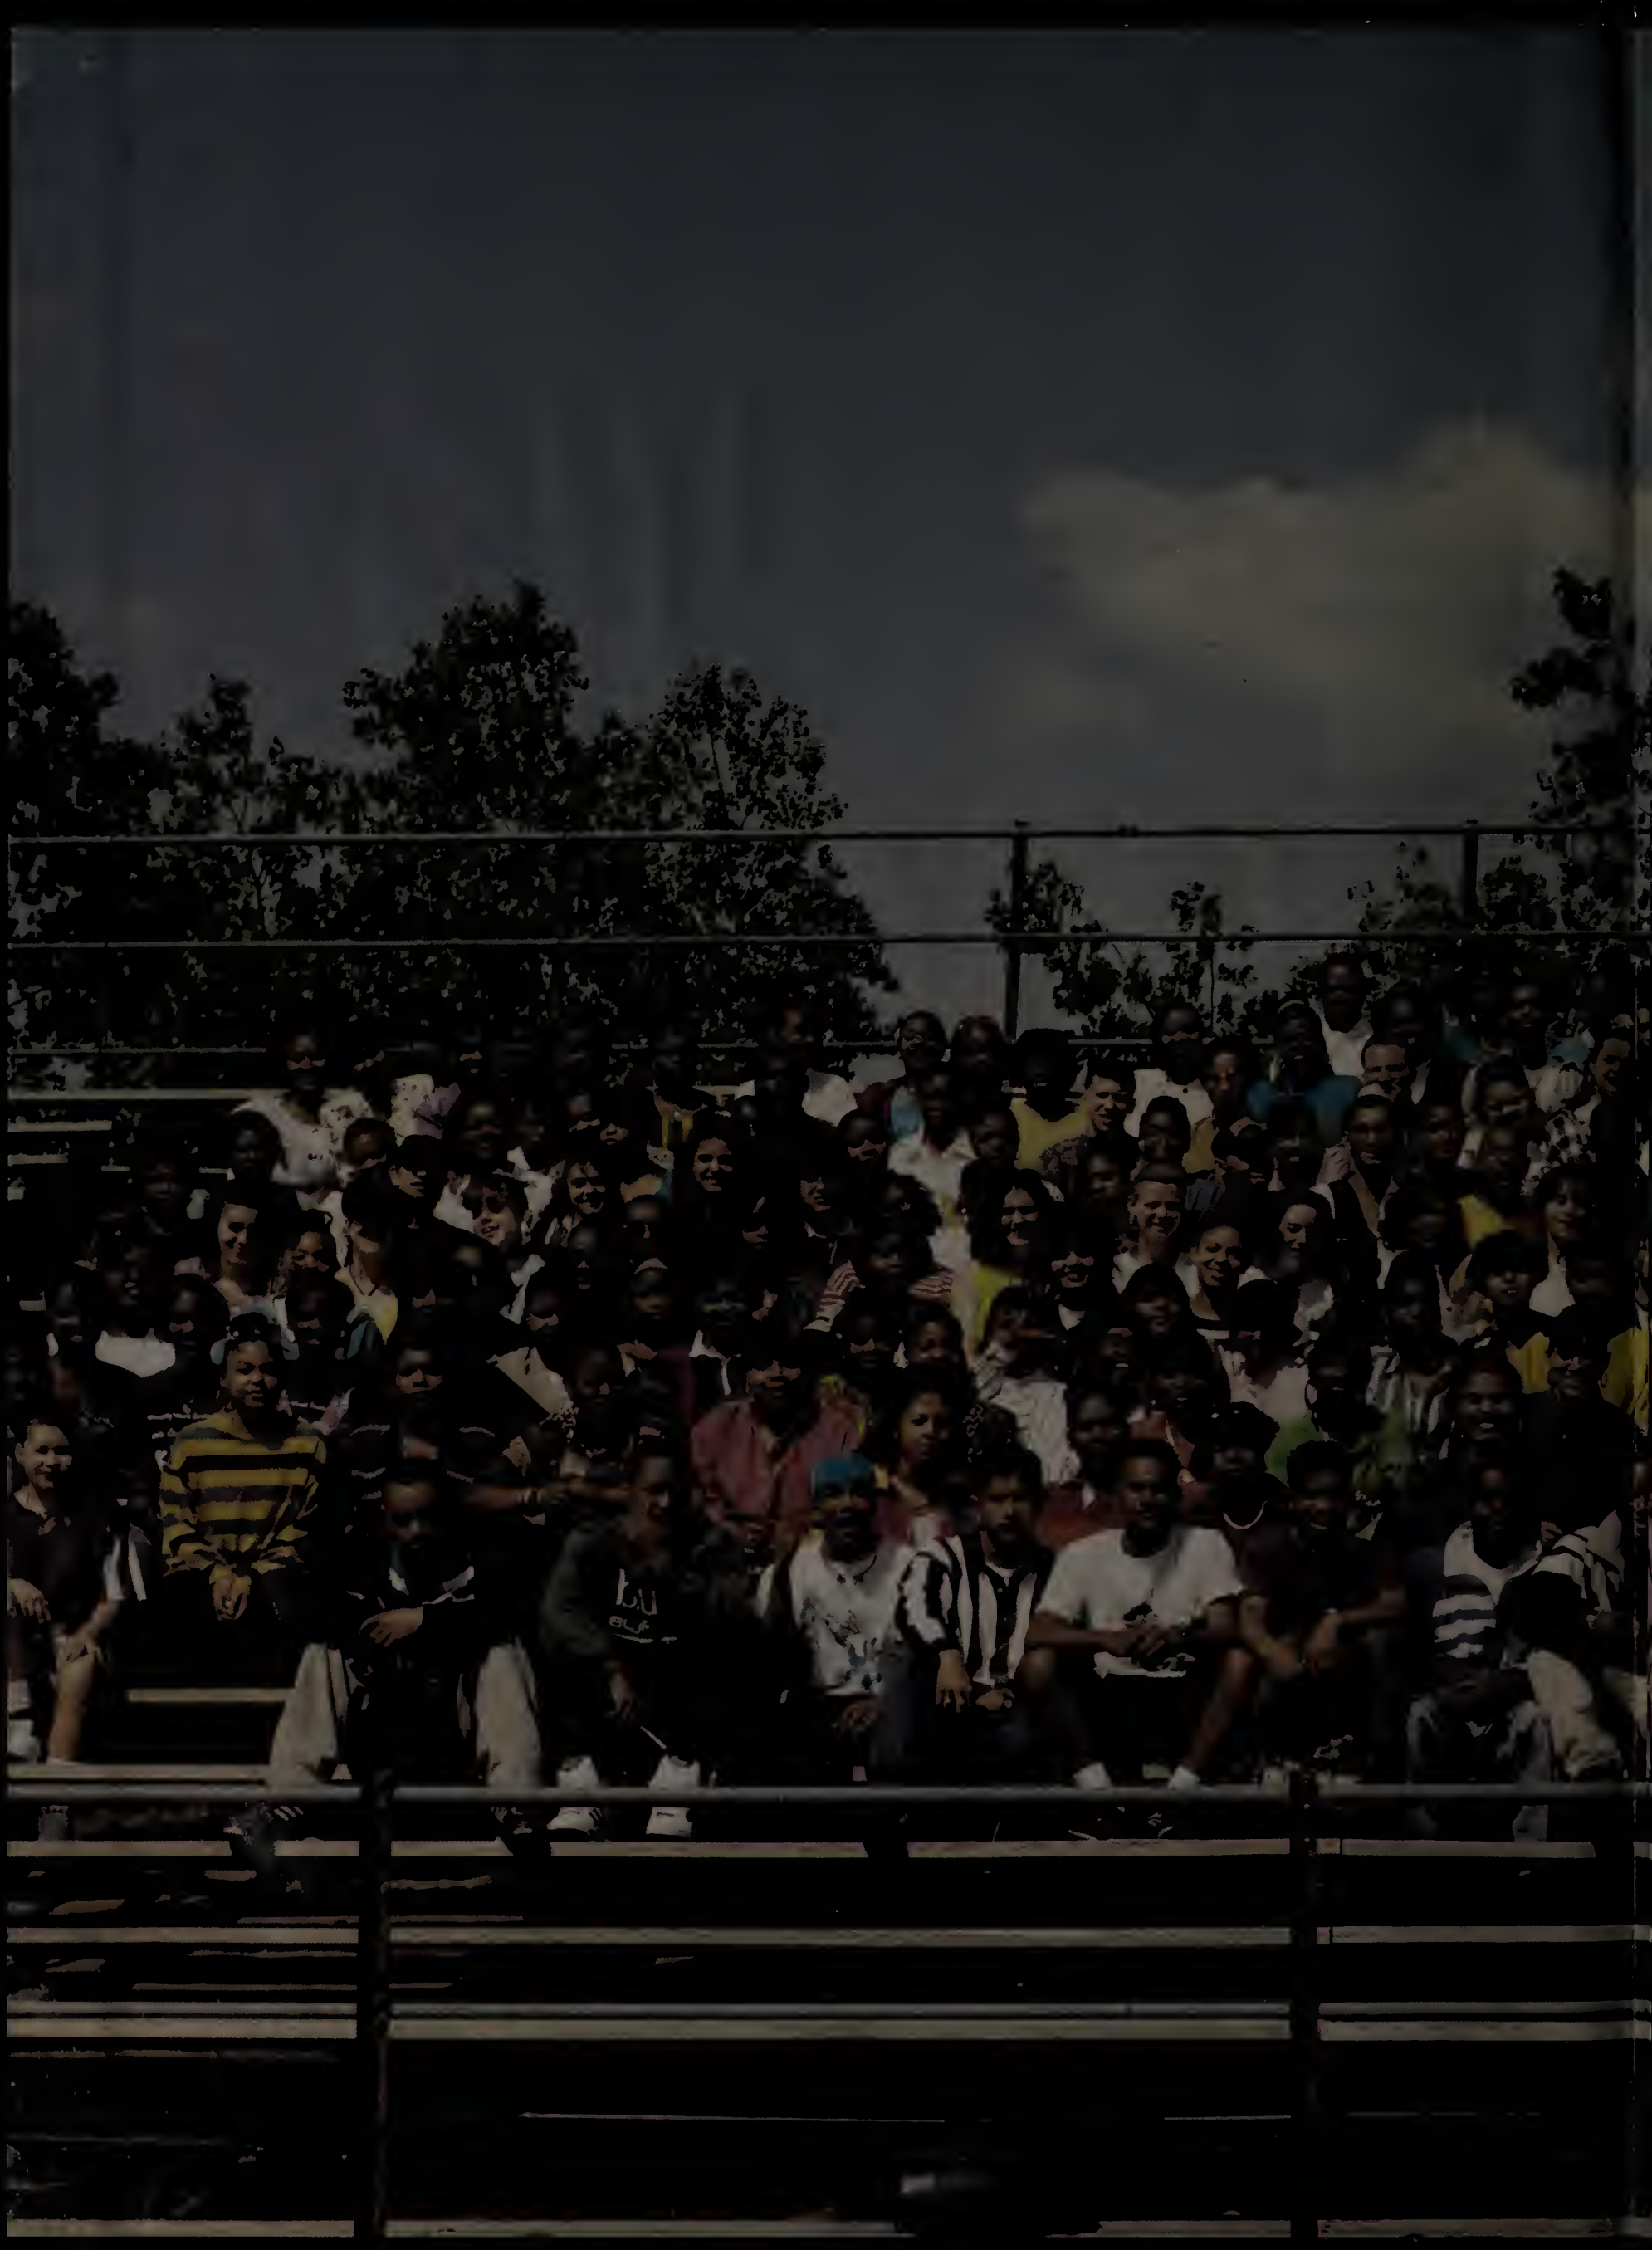
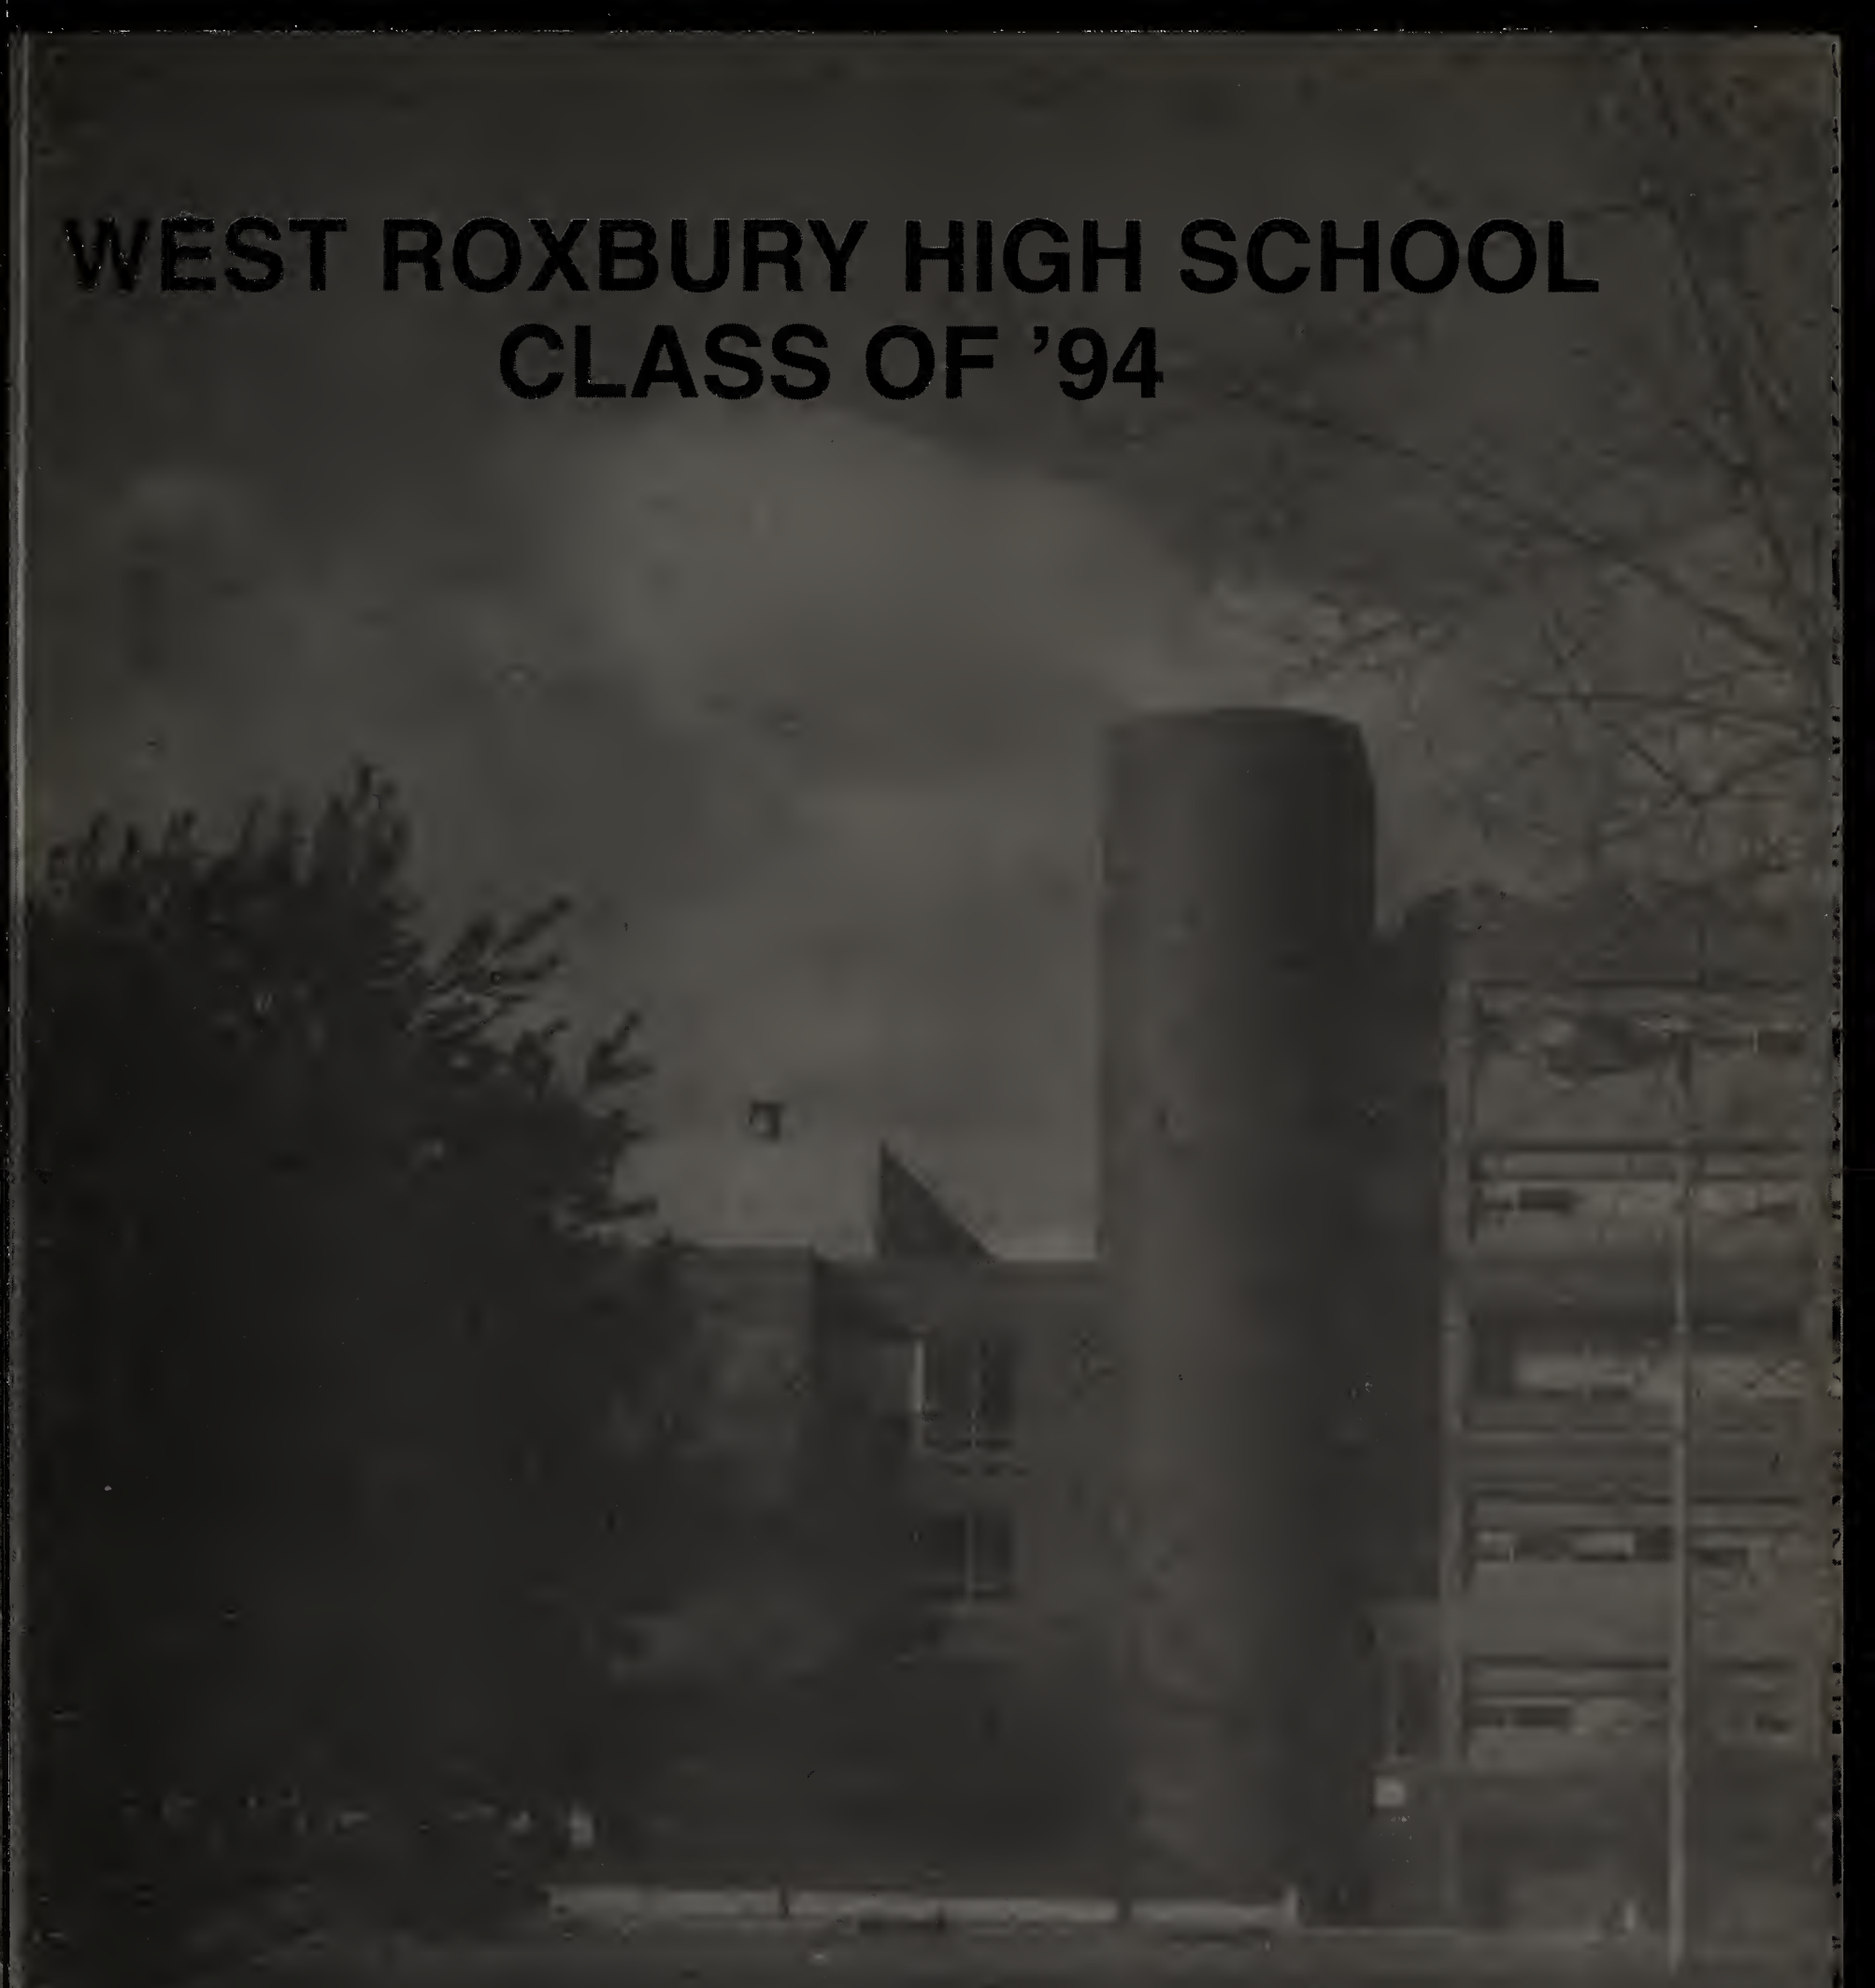
The Four Quarters



WEST ROXBURY HIGH SCHOOL
CLASS OF '94



On December 20, 1993 the WRHS Community was deprived of a promising member of the class of 1996. Louis Brown, an honor student and a fine human being, was tragically hit by a stray bullet in Dorchester.

While grieving the loss of this outstanding young man, and regretting that his noble ambition for the future can never be fulfilled, we are sadly reminded of the challenge posed to all responsible citizens who, like Louis, desire to eradicate the plague of guns and drugs in contemporary urban American.

The class of '94 dedicates this yearbook to Louis Brown and to the ideas he had for a safe society.
